

Church Covenant

We are those who by God's grace have been brought to believe and embrace the gospel of Jesus Christ and Him crucified. His death and resurrection is now and always our only hope for salvation and our daily motivation to live for God's glory. We have professed and proclaimed these realities in baptism and have been brought by God's providence to this local body. We now, in reliance on God's gracious aid, solemnly and joyfully covenant with and commit to each other in the following ways:

I will live a life of love and care for my fellow believers in this body...

- ...by bringing them before the throne of grace in prayer.
- ...by compassionately meeting whatever needs I am able.
- ...by encouraging, exhorting, and confronting others as needed.
- ...by rejoicing and weeping with my fellow believers in brotherly love.
- ...by seeking to preserve unity and peace in my relationships.

I will function biblically within this body corporately...

- ...by faithfully attending and genuinely participating in the essentials of church life.
- ...by seeing needs and seeking to meet them in humble service.
- ...by engaging mentally, physically and spiritually in all aspects of corporate worship.
- ...by sacrificially and cheerfully giving of my finances.
- ...by following and submitting to the elders.
- ...by submitting to and participating in whatever church discipline is necessary.

I will join with this body in spreading the gospel of Jesus Christ in Auburn and the surrounding areas...

- ...by praying for God's gracious and saving work in those around me.
- ...by striving to live a life of grace-motivated holiness.
- ...by faithfully training and instructing my children.
- ...by genuinely loving and serving those in my community.
- ...by proclaiming the saving gospel of Jesus Christ to those around me.
